

You are here exploring art in the suburbs

This map is a guide for your own suburban public arts adventure. It features examples of the wide variety of cultural offerings in Twin Cities suburbs, places where visitors can see artworks or attend regular events and performances. And we've only scratched the surface. For every example we've listed, there are a dozen others we didn't have room to include. If you'd like in-depth information about the art pictured on the front of the map, read You Are Here, a new booklet by The McKnight Foundation and FORECAST Public Artworks. Call the Foundation at 612-333-4220 for a free copy (first come, first served), or download a copy from www.mcknight.org. Then have some fun—tell us about your own must-see or must-do suburban arts recommendations at www.mcknight.org/youarehere.
